Planning for the Future of Your Farm Workshop

OSU Extension invites farm families to learn how to create a plan for the future transition of their farm's ownership, management, and assets to the next generation. Learn how to have the crucial conversations about the future of your farm over this two-day workshop.

Workshop topics include: Developing Legacy Goals; Planning for the Transition of Management; Planning for the Unexpected; Communication and Conflict Management; Legal Tools and Strategies; Developing Your Team; Getting Your Affairs in Order; and Selecting an Attorney.

The base registration fee of $80 includes course materials, refreshments and a light dinner for two persons. Additional family members can attend for $20 per additional person. More information can be obtained by contacting Jacob King or the Logan County Extension Office at (937) 599-4227.

For more information, visit go.osu.edu/farmsuccession.

Maintaining Farm Family Legacy Through Farm Transition and Estate Planning

Our teaching team will help answer the following questions and much more!

- Who should we leave the farm to?
- How do we prepare the next generation to manage the farm in the future?
- How can we overcome family communication issues?
- How do we value sweat equity?
- What is the difference between a will and trust?
- Will I lose my farm to estate taxes or to the nursing home?
- What do we need to do to be better prepared to meet with an attorney and other professionals?
- What resources does OSU Extension have to assist us as we develop our plan?
